

Shiloh Goldendoodles

Health Guarantee

TERMINOLOGY:

SELLER: Shiloh Goldendoodles or any of its designated representatives.

BUYER: The purchaser of the puppy.

DOD (Date of Delivery): The date which the buyer takes possession of the puppy.

DOB (Date of Birth): The date which the puppy is birthed.

Puppy Name: _____ DOB: _____

GUARANTEE:

The SELLER guarantees the BUYER that at the time of delivery, the puppy is in excellent health and the puppy has received proper vaccinations and de-wormings appropriate for its age. We also guarantee your puppy to be free from all terminally genetic diseases and moderate or severe Hip Dysplasia for two years from the puppy's DOB. We guarantee your puppy to be free from the Parvo virus and Distemper on the puppy's DOD.

CONDITIONS:

The BUYER must either sign this contract in person on the DOD and hand it immediately to the SELLER (if delivery is made in person) OR return it to the SELLER by US Mail postmarked within 7 days from the DOD. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

The BUYER also has 7 days from the DOD to have the puppy examined by a licensed Veterinarian and have a copy of the results of this examination returned to the SELLER by US Mail postmarked within 7 days of the DOD. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

At the time of this initial exam, should your licensed Veterinarian find the puppy in poor health or detect any physical health problems that would require further veterinary care (excluding required vaccinations and or treatment for any type of flea, lice, parasite, worm or bacteria, internal or external), the BUYER must contact the SELLER via phone or email within 24 hours from the time of this diagnosis. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

The BUYER must not allow the puppy to come in contact with the floor or any other publicly accessible surfaces of the Veterinarian's office (ie: office waiting areas and grounds outside the Veterinarian's office) for any reason because of the possibility of contracting the Parvo virus. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

EXCEPTIONS:

Should your Goldendoodle be found to have a terminally genetic disease within two years from the puppy's DOB, the BUYER must provide the SELLER with proof in the form of documentation signed by the Licensed Veterinarian who diagnosed the disorder. All genetic diseases must be validated by a licensed Veterinarian and a copy of the results returned to the SELLER via US Mail postmarked within 7 days of the diagnosis. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

Should your Goldendoodle be found to have moderate or severe Hip Dysplasia, within two years from the puppy's DOB, the BUYER must provide the SELLER with proof in the form of official documentation from PennHIP (The University of Pennsylvania Hip Improvement Program) or OFA (Orthopedic Foundation for Animals). A copy of this documentation must be returned to the SELLER via US Mail postmarked within 14 days of the diagnosis from PennHIP or OFA. If the dog, at any time during the first two years from the puppy's DOB, was allowed to become overweight, or have its joints to be overstressed, then this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

Should your Goldendoodle be found to have contracted the Parvo or distemper virus any time before the DOD, the BUYER must have the ELISA (Enzyme-linked immunosorbent assay) test performed by a licensed Veterinarian and a copy of the results returned to the SELLER via US Mail postmarked within 7 days of the diagnosis. Failure to do this will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

Should any of the conditions above be discovered, and all requirements outlined in this document relating to that condition be met, the SELLER will provide the BUYER a replacement puppy or refund of the purchase price minus shipping costs and any other costs incurred by the SELLER during the process of resolving the issue. The SELLER is not responsible for any costs incurred by the BUYER associated with the treatment or diagnosis of the puppy. All costs associated with the diagnosis and treatment of the puppy is the exclusive responsibility of the BUYER. The SELLER does NOT require the BUYER to return the affected dog in the event of an exchange or refund. We the SELLER reserve the right to confirm any of these results via independent Veterinarian examination before a refund is given. Results of this Veterinary examination will be the final deciding factor as to whether a refund will be given.

RE-HOMING:

The SELLER offers a lifetime re-home policy on all of the dogs bred at Shiloh Goldendoodles. Should it become necessary, at any point during the dog's life, that the BUYER can no longer keep the dog for any reason, the BUYER agrees to return dog to the SELLER so that we may re-home the dog. The BUYER must contact the SELLER to request a re-home. The BUYER will be responsible for all financial costs associated with the dog's re-homing. If the BUYER re-home's the dog without the SELLER's permission, this guarantee will be canceled. It will be null and void.

NON-BREEDING CLAUSE:

Shiloh Goldendoodle puppies are sold on a NON-BREEDING contract. The BUYER agrees to spay or neuter the dog within seven months of the puppy's DOB. Spaying or neutering must be performed by a licensed Veterinarian and a copy of the results of the procedure returned to the SELLER via US Mail postmarked within 7 days of the procedure. Any costs associated with the procedure are the sole responsibility of the BUYER. Failure to do any of the above will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

MAINTENANCE:

The BUYER agrees to keep this dog in good health by providing preventative health care including, but not limited to: Providing routine vaccinations, treatment for internal and external parasites, heart worm prevention medication, flea and tick prevention medication, regular baths, grooming, proper housing and any other procedure or medication that a licensed Veterinarian would recommend as necessary for the proper upkeep of the dog. Upon execution of this contract all veterinary care and its associated costs are the sole and exclusive responsibility of the BUYER. Failure to do any of the above will result in the cancellation of this guarantee. It will be null and void.

TRANSFER OF GUARANTEE:

This guarantee is for the original BUYER only. This guarantee is NOT transferable.

LIABILITY:

Unless stated elsewhere in this contract, the SELLER's dogs are sold in the hope that they will be useful. They are sold without additional guarantees of any kind, either expressed or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. The entire risk as to the quality and performance of the dog is with you the BUYER. Should the dog prove defective, other than outlined above, you the BUYER assume the cost of all necessary care. In no event unless required by applicable law will the SELLER be liable to the BUYER for damages, including any general, special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use or inability to use the dog (including but not limited to losses sustained by you or third parties for any action or inaction of the dog), even if the SELLER has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

I agree to everything set forth in this contract.
